

The image shows a screenshot of a citation management software interface. The interface includes a top navigation bar with a search box and a 'Submit' button. Below this, there are several sections for entering citation information:

- Copy & paste a citation: A section for pasting a citation directly.
- Quick cite: A section for quick citation entry.
- Web Site: A section for entering website information, including fields for 'Name of the Web site', 'Publisher of the site', and 'Date of access (if available)'. A blue arrow points from the 'Name of the Web site' field to a white box.
- URL: A field for entering the URL.
- Web Page: A section for entering web page information, including a 'Contributor' field.
- Other contributor: A section for adding other contributors, with a '+ Add another contributor' button.
- Web page or document title: A field for entering the title of the web page or document. A blue arrow points from this field to a white box containing the text 'Year Round Schooling'.
- Untitled citation and source information: A field for entering additional citation and source information. A blue arrow points from this field to a white box.

At the bottom of the interface, there are three white boxes with black borders. The middle box contains the text 'Year Round Schooling'. Blue arrows point from the 'Name of the Web site' field, the 'Web page or document title' field, and the 'Untitled citation and source information' field to these boxes.

---

Source Citation

Dessoff, Alan. "Is year-round schooling on track? Summer learning loss and

---