CENTRAL BUCKS SCHOOL DISTRICT

By: Sharon Reiner, Secretary

The Board of School Directors and Dr. Rodney N. Green came to a mutual settlement agreement.

This decision has nothing to do with Rodney N. Green the person, but about the direction of the educational mission of the district. Some terms of the agreement cannot be discussed but President Corr did provide some information that could be discussed. President Corr stressed that being discussed with everyone else present with administrators and school board members later.

The decision to reach a mutual settlement agreement with Dr. Green was not reached lightly by the Board and the community.

President Carr stated that Dr. Green will receive a total of $265,000 to be paid in two installments, August 9, 2013 and January 10, 2014; will receive health insurance for one year; and will be able to keep his iPhone, iPad, and ink-jet printer.

President Carr announced that the appointment of an Acting Superintendent will be made at the
